

Change Management CoP Manifesto

Are you a Change practitioner at UQ? Or are you interested in learning more about Change? You should join the UQ Change Management Community of Practice! Our monthly knowledge-sharing meeting brings together guest speakers and member contributions to create a welcoming community. Interested? Read our values below, and if you want to join, email Ella Donald.

We help each other grow and learn

We take responsibility for our actions

We welcome others to join, from across UQ!

We share experiences to help others learn

We are proud to belong to the Community

We put in more than we take out

We make contributions in ways that work for us

We value others as we value ourselves

2023 topics include ...

- Recovering from bad change
- New tools/methodologies at UQ
- Data in change management (and how to get it)
- Implementing organisational/behavioural change in a team
- Spotlight sessions on key teams (e.g., Marketing and Comms, Brand)
- Building Change capability
- Reframing resistance
- Calculating capability and capacity
- Networking opportunities

Are you interested in speaking to one of these topics, or have another idea? Please email uqedona2@uq.edu.au!
